Church Tour – Stained Glass Windows

On Easter Sunday, at the 10 a.m. Children's Mass, Fr. Abe told the assembly about the special gift we had for the children (butterfly crosses) and pointed out the symbols in the Resurrection Window in our church, located to the right of the altar. The rays in that window can also be seen on our Easter banners.

Parishioners have said that they would like to hear more information about our stained glass windows and other objects within the church. Did you know that the seven small windows in our church each represent one of the seven sacraments?

Can you guess which sacrament is represented by this stained glass window, with its blue, flowing waters?
